

Patrick Orr

Patrick joined CFPB in March of 2013 and has been a Policy Analyst on the Mortgage Markets team since October of 2014. As a member of the Mortgage Markets team, Patrick plays a critical role in providing secondary market analysis to the research and regulations teams as well as managing the planning and operational implementation of the HMDA rulemaking.

Prior to joining the CFPB, Patrick worked for the Special Inspector General for TARP (SIGTARP) auditing the use of mortgage related TARP funds. Before SIGTARP, he was a strategy consultant with Booz Allen Hamilton focused on providing solutions to complex financial business problems in the government sector. His banking experience began at Fannie Mae in the Single-Family Lender Strategies group and moved to IndyMac bank where he traded mortgage servicing rights and managed construction to perm profitability. He holds a BBA in Business Management from Howard University and an MBA with concentrations in Finance & Strategy from Case Western Reserve University's Weatherhead School of Management.
